EDITORIAL

It is with immense pleasure and gratitude to Allah (SWT) that, on behalf of the Editorial Board, I present the 9th volume, Issue 2, December 2024 edition of the Voyages Journal of Religious Studies, a publication of the Department of Religious Studies, Gombe State University. This edition brings together an array of insightful articles by esteemed scholars, addressing critical issues pertinent to our contemporary society and religious thought.

This volume explores a range of topics that are both timely and significant. Among the contributions, we have: One of the highlights of this edition is the article Tafsir: Origin, schools and Trends, which delves into the discussion of the most important Tafsir trends, both classical and contemporary addressing the problem of wrong interpretations of the glorious Quran.

In addressing the recurrent crises and conflicts in Nigeria, the article entitled Ethics of Peace, Religion and Conflict Resolution in Nigeria, has presented insightful solutions in combatting the Menace of Recurrent Crisis in Nigeria. This is crucial for fostering peace and understanding in the country. The topic of sustenance, digital transactions, challenges of inheritance, social media, traditional religion and cultures and other important topics were also well presented.

My heartfelt gratitude goes to the authors who have shared their invaluable knowledge and insights in this edition. I also extend my sincere thanks to the editorial consultants and the editorial board for their tireless efforts in ensuring the success of this publication.

Thank you and may Allah (SWT) bless our endeavours.

Prof. Dahiru Inuwa Ibrahim,
Head, Department of Religious Studies,
Gombe State University, Gombe, Nigeria.
